

I used to work for the Building Research Establishment (BRE) doing construction materials testing, but I wanted to do something in the renewable energy space and energy provision. I also wanted to